

Reach more customers and increase sales with your customized online Day & Night[®] financing application

With more than 3 of every 4 Americans using the internet today¹, imagine how many more sales you could close just by adding a financing application to your website.

Online applications are good for your business

- Allows you to get notification of customer credit decisions at your office so you know who has applied from your website.
- Cutting down on application paperwork means more time in your day for selling, caring for your customers, and managing your business.
- Save your time with customers who are approved for financing before making purchase decisions.
- Knowing your customer's approved credit line can help you offer products that work within your customer's budget.
- Special terms financing promotions and low monthly payments drive customers to call and help you close more sales.
- Potential customers searching online for HVAC financing can find you and apply at your website while they're in the mindset.
- Customers who have had an easy, convenient way to do business with you help promote your business when they spread the word to friends, family, and colleagues.

Online applications are good for your customers

- In just a few minutes, customers can apply for financing in the privacy of their home.
- 24/7 access lets your customers apply at their convenience.
- Saves your customers' time with an easy-to-complete form and fast credit decision.
- Customers will know how much they can spend before making purchase decisions.
- Customers can enter their information accurately and securely.
- Saves you time when the customers' financing is in place ahead of time.
